ABOUT US

Wisconsin Converting, Inc. (WCI) was founded in 1987 in Green Bay, Wisconsin. WCI sells exclusively through a growing list of over 1,400 packaging distributors in North America. Our manufacturing facility houses machines for paper bag production with in-line flexographic printing, post-printing, hot stamping, and digital printing. We offer a complete line of stock and custom printed paper bags and are dedicated to protecting and preserving the environment.

We specialize in manufacturing two primary types of paper bags: pinch-bottom bags, often used as merchandise bags or mailers, as well as flat-bottom bags, known as SOS bags.

Flat-Bottom Bags (SOS)

Explore the versatility of WCI's SOS bags — more than just a lunch bag! Perfect for popcorn, gift bags, pharmacies, delis, and more. We offer various color options. Sizes range from 1# to modified 1/6 Barrel, offering customizable packaging solutions for various businesses.

Pinch-Bottom Bags (Merchandise)

The retail packaging industry has depended on WCI for custom-printed merchandise bags in white, natural, and colors, for more than 25 years. With an assortment of sizes and colors, there is a merchandise bag that's perfect to help promote any business.

Mailers & Shipping Bags

WCI's paper shipping bags have been used for nearly 30 years by retailers seeking an alternative to plastic mailers. They continue to grow in popularity for a variety of reasons ranging from reducing shipping costs (vs. boxes), seeking sustainable options, or creating a custom look.
